

Congratulations Josh Klamka!

“Sometimes it is better to look at Judaism as a whole, instead of as many tangled strings of tzitzit. We are each but within a larger community, each similar to others but different in their own unique ways.”

From Ruth Malka, Mifgash Director:

I am beyond thrilled to share with you an email I received this week.

I am delighted to inform you that Mifgash will be featured in a dedicated exhibit at Beit Hatfutsot – The Museum of the Jewish People in Tel Aviv.

Josh Klamka's photograph, Shawl and Strings, has been selected as a winning entry in The Jewish Lens @ Beit Hatfutsot Photo Competition, in partnership with renowned photographer Zion Ozeri. The winning photographs will go on display starting February 7th.

This year we had outstanding submissions from Jewish communities in ten different countries across Israel, Europe, South America and North America. It was a privilege having your school take part in this global Jewish initiative.

This year's exhibit, celebrating Israel's 70th, will be displayed throughout May 2018, and introduced to many groups visiting Israel around Yom Haatzmaut. We would love to host visitors from your community at the museum.

Thank you for being part of The Jewish Lens @ Beit Hatfutsot, for facilitating the program, and for sharing the work of your talented students. We very much appreciate your support in making this a successful year!"

Thank you to Josh Cooper-Ginsburg for teaching the Jewish Lens course and bringing us to this wonderful accomplishment!
